Dr Makarena Dudley is a specialist in the field of Psychology at Auckland University. She leads a large research project to develop a theory and diagnostic tool for dementia in Maori, and is involved in the development of a Cognitive Stimulation Therapy tool for Maori. Register to hear Dr Dudley share about these new initiatives.

Laurie Hilsen is the Founder and CEO of Carers NZ, and editor of Family Care NZ magazine. Hear Laurie share about caring for carers, using respite to refresh, and understanding the unique form of grief people living with dementia and their carers, often experience.
